ORDER:-

In the G.O. 14th read above, orders have been issued imposing a punishment of withholding of 50% pension and pensionary benefits against Sri A. Krishna Murthy, formerly Deputy Commissioner of Labour for the alleged mispronouncement of judgment under Workmen's Compensation Act in a case relating to awarding judgment under the Act as a Quasi Judicial Authority.

2. In the representation 15th cited, Sri A. Krishna Murthy, Deputy Commissioner of Labour (Retd.) has submitted a representation to revise the punishment keeping in view of the submissions made therein.

3. After careful examination of the matter, it is observed that the officer delivered the judgment as quasi-judicial authority in which there cannot be any loss to the Government. Parties, if any aggrieved with the judgment can appeal before a court of law. Therefore, on re-consideration it is felt that there are no merits for the punishment imposed in the G.O. 14th read above.

4. Accordingly, the orders issued in the G.O. 14th read above imposing punishment on Sri A. Krishna Murthy, Deputy Commissioner of Labour (Retd.) are hereby revoked.

5. The Commissioner of Labour, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary action in the matter.
